

Advancing the Science on Recovery Community Centers: Seminar Series

Seminar 9

Title:

RCCs in Context: The Importance of Engaging the Recovery Community

Presenter:

Joseph Hogan Sanchez, Director of Programs, Faces & Voices of Recovery
Phillip Rutherford, Chief Operating Officer, Faces & Voices of Recovery

RCC Live Feature:

Nick DeMott of Lifeboat Recovery: <https://lifeboataddictionrecovery.org/home>

Date:

Friday, July 16th, 12:00 PM ET

Description:

In this seminar, the presenters will highlight national standards for community engagement including: using a participatory process to assess community strengths and needs; offering an opportunity-rich environment that builds individual and community strengths (recovery capital), and offers programs that have a measurable impact. These standards fall within the performance-related domain of the Council on Accreditation of Peer Recovery Support services. Examples of engagement strategies used by accredited recovery community organizations will be provided.

Recording:

https://youtu.be/cnN32Fg_jjk

Slides:

<http://www.recoveryanswers.org/assets/2021.07.16-Slides.pdf>

Chat Transcript:

For privacy reasons, please email RecoverySeminars@MGH.HARVARD.EDU for a copy of the chat.