

APPLY FOR THE

JEAP INITIATIVE TRAINING INSTITUTE

for individuals interested in developing an NIH-funded research career in substance use recovery support services

Training Institute includes...

- 3-day virtual Training Workshop, July 31st - August 2nd, 2023
- 2 years of distance mentoring
- Access to various seminars
- Access to pilot study funding
- Access to travel funds
- Opportunity to collaborate with Community Boards
- Access to network of peers
- Access to methods and statistics expertise
- Access to expert Consultants

If you are interested in pursuing NIH-funded research on recovery support services and you have completed your Ph.D. or have advanced to candidacy, this Training Institute is for you! Individuals with lived experience with substance use and/or the justice system, and individuals from underrepresented groups are especially encouraged to apply.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: APRIL 19th

See full details and eligibility criteria at:
jeapinitiative.org/training-institute

The JEAP Initiative is supported by the National Institute on Drug Abuse (R24DA051950)

